

Latin Final Exam Study Guide

The final exam will consist of three main areas: vocabulary, grammar, and translation.

Vocabulary

Every word from CAPITVLA I-VIII in Lingua Latina. Lists of vocabulary words may be found in the margins at the end of each chapter.

Grammar

1. The name, function, and order of all noun + adjective cases
2. Form and function of the 1st and 2nd Declension for nouns and adjectives
3. Full declensions of pronouns meus -a -um, tuus -a -um, suus -a -um; is, ea, id; hic haec hoc; ille, illa, illud; qui, quae, quod
4. Verbs: 3rd person singular and plural indicative; 2nd person singular and plural imperative; active vs. passive forms and functions
5. Suffixes: form and function of -ne and -que
6. Function of prepositions and their corresponding cases
7. Cardinal numbers 1-10 and ordinal numbers 1-3

Translation

You must also be able to translate sentences from Latin into English, and from English into Latin. The best way to prepare for this is to reread and review the stories in our textbook. It will be essential for you to have a solid grasp on the vocabulary words and grammar concepts outlined above in order to create a correct translation.
