things to review

- Plato and Aristotle
  - Plato's ideal: best idea even if not realistic.
  - Aristotle: focused on earth practicality
- deus secundus - man is modeled after god, but they are finite, have free will and ability to create, but still limited. every person is center of their own universe
- royal charter makes town ally of king b/c charter could protect local rights from the lords. made the townspeople only have to respond to the king.
- contrapposto - one leg carries most of the weight of a sculpture while the other leg is resting.
- ordinance of laborers - law in regard to turn back black death. workers are paid same amounts as before black death b/c they had increased their wages.
- Chiaroscuro - use of shading to make 2D into 3D

Name: Jack Finn Date: 10/20/26

Renaissance and New Monarchies Study Guide

- Monday, October 26 • Closed notes • 15 minutes • 12 points + 1 optional bonus.
- Study 002A.1–3, 002B and its art reading, and 002C.1–3, through the four country cases.
- Know the terms below. Practice the questions orally; no written submission is required.

002A1 and 002A2 Before the Renaissance

Key terms

Black Death	Ordinance of Labourers	simony
nepotism	indulgence	Great Schism
Renaissance	continuity

Review questions

1. How did the Black Death change surviving workers' bargaining power?

2. What two requirements in the Ordinance of Labourers show an attempt to control workers after the plague?

3. How did Church corruption and rival popes weaken confidence in Church authority?

4. Name two developments in 002A.2 that increased access to classical texts or ideas.

002A3 Italian Humanism and Classical Revival

Key terms

Florence	Medici	patronage
humanism	humane letters	vernacular
classical Latin	natural law	civic life

Review questions

5. Why did Florence's merchants, artisans, and patrons matter to the Renaissance?

6. What did humanists study, and what did they hope education would develop in a person?

7. Why could a Renaissance writer value both classical Latin and the vernacular?

8. How does the emphasis on a particular leader in The Prince differ from an inquiry into an ideal regime?

9. What do Rabbi Akiva's stalks of grain and loaves of bread show about human work?

10. Give one Renaissance change and one important Christian continuity.

002B Renaissance Art and Visual Language

Key terms

linear perspective	vanishing point	chiaroscuro
anatomy	proportion	contrapposto
freestanding sculpture	drapery	symmetry
classical forms	human agency

Review questions

11. How do the floor and architectural lines in Raphael's School of Athens organize the painted space?

12. How do Plato's and Aristotle's gestures in School of Athens distinguish their approaches to truth?

13. How do the reaching hands in Creation of Adam present the relationship between God and Adam?

14. How does contrapposto affect the pose of Michelangelo's David?

15. Compare a biblical figure in the medieval sculpture examples with David or Tullio Lombardo's Adam. Identify one visible change and one religious continuity.

16. Which classical forms appear in the Tempietto, and what Christian purpose does the building retain?

17. Explain how one Renaissance artwork combines attention to the human figure with a religious subject.

002C1 The Northern Renaissance

Key terms

Johannes Gutenberg	movable type	Gutenberg Bible
Faust	Faustian	Nicholas of Cusa
deus secundus	mysticism

Review questions

18. How did movable type change the production and circulation of books?

19. What does Faust's bargain suggest about the relationship between knowledge and goodness?

20. Why does deus secundus encourage human creativity without making human beings equal to God?

21. How could mysticism support religious observance, and how could it also call traditional practice into question?

22. What different emphases did the Northern and Italian Renaissance have? What Christian concern did they share?

002C2 The New Monarchies General Trends

Key terms

serf	charter	infantry
pikemen	longbowmen	parliament
salus populi suprema lex	quod principi placuit legis habet vigorem	sovereign

Review questions

23. Why could townspeople support a king against powerful nobles?

24. Why did pikemen and longbowmen reduce kings' dependence on noble cavalry?

25. How could salus populi suprema lex justify both stronger government and opposition to a tyrant?

26. How does quod principi placuit legis habet vigorem differ from an argument based on public welfare?

27. Why did stronger royal government not automatically mean unlimited monarchy?

002C3 The New Monarchies Four Country Cases

Key terms

Habsburgs	Holy Roman Empire	dynastic union
Ferdinand and Isabella	Spanish Inquisition	conversos
Louis XI	Concordat of Bologna	Gallicanism
Henry VII	Tudor	El Escorial
El Greco	Miguel de Cervantes	Don Quixote

Review questions

28. How did Habsburg marriage and inheritance increase the dynasty's power?

29. Why did Habsburg success not turn the Holy Roman Empire into a centralized German state?

30. What did Ferdinand and Isabella's marriage unite, and what remained separate?

31. How did Ferdinand and Isabella use religion to strengthen their monarchy?

32. How did Louis XI strengthen the French crown?

33. Why must the Concordat of Bologna be associated with Francis I rather than Louis XI?

34. How did Henry VII strengthen royal government while English institutions continued?

35. Explain how a royal charter could increase a town's independence from a noble while strengthening the king.

36. What examples of architecture, painting, and literature illustrate Spain's later Golden Age?